Orlando, FL— State Representative Geraldine F. Thompson of Florida House District 39 invites youth and adults to participate in the 4th Annual Health and Youth Opportunities Fair during the 2011 Juneteenth Music Festival scheduled for June 18 at the Central Florida Fairgrounds on West Colonial Drive. The Health and Youth Opportunities Fair will be held from 10:00 a.m. until 2:00 p.m. at the Fairgrounds to be followed by the Juneteenth Music Festival which will feature local talent and national recording artists Tank and Atlantic Starr.

The Health and Youth Opportunities Fair is free and will bring together colleges, universities, apprenticeship programs, and major health care providers. Participants will be able to receive free blood pressure, cholesterol and glucose checks in addition to vision and dental screenings. Other organizations scheduled to participate in the Fair include the Central Florida Blood Bank which will provide free gas cards to individuals who donate blood during the Juneteenth events. The College Board will be present to discuss higher education options available to recent graduates. Over 25 organizations have signed up to participate in the Health and Youth Opportunities Fair. Save the date and plan to take advantage of this informational and beneficial event. For more information, contact Sylaisha Taylor, Executive Secretary to Representative Geraldine F. Thompson, at 407-245-1511 or by email at Sylaisha.Taylor@myfloridahouse.gov.
